President Isaac Lewis of Sabina, Ohio, highly respected all through that section. He has lived in Clinton Co. 25 years, and has been president of the Sabina Bank 20 years. He gladly testifies to the merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and what he says is worthy attention. All brain workers find Hood's Sarsaparilla peculiarly adapted to their needs. It makes pure, rich, and blood, and from this comes nerve, mental, bodily and digestive strength. "I am glad to say that Hood's Sarsaparilla is a very good medicine, especially a blood purifier. It has done me good many times. For several years I suffered greatly with pains of in one eye and about my temples, especially at night when I had been having a hard day of physical and mental labor. I took many remedies, but found help only in Hood's Sarsaparilla which cured me of neuralgia, neuralgia and headache. Hood's Sarsaparilla has proved itself a true friend. I also take Hood's Pills to keep my bowels regular, and like the pills very much." ISAAC LEWIS, Sabina, Ohio.

A CONQUERING WILL. Many are the stories told of the way in which Pitt, the first earl of Chatham, frightened and silenced those who attempted to criticize his speech or action in any way.

On one occasion a member of the house of commons made use of the phrase "King, lords and commons, or"—directing his gaze toward Mr. Pitt—"as that right honorable member would call them, 'commons, lords and king.'"

Mr. Pitt rose with great deliberation and called to order.

"I have frequently heard in this house doctrines which have surprised me," he said, "but now my blood runs cold. I desire the words of the honorable member may be taken down."

The clerk of the house wrote the words.

"Bring them to me," commanded Mr. Pitt in a voice of thunder. By this time the offending member was thoroughly frightened.

"Sir," he said, addressing himself to the speaker, "I am sorry to have given offense to the right honorable gentleman or to the house. I meant nothing! King, lords and commons; lords, king and commons; commons, lords and king. Tris janets in uno. I meant nothing! Indeed I meant nothing!"

Mr. Pitt then rose and said gravely: "I do not wish to push the matter further. The moment a man acknowledges his error he ceases to be guilty. I have a great regard for the honorable member, and as an instance of that regard I give him this advice—that whenever he means nothing he will say nothing."
